

III International Festival of Adaptive Sports "IMPULSE"

International Inclusive Games 2026

In a world where sport bridges people, overcoming all barriers, an event is coming that will spark inspiration in the hearts of thousands. The 3rd International Adaptive Sports Festival "Impulse"—International Inclusive Games 2026—invites everyone to be part of a grand celebration of strength, unity, and boundless possibilities. From March 26 to 29, 2026, sunny Sochi, the pearl of the Black Sea, will become the epicenter of the global inclusive movement, where every step, every throw, and every breath is a triumph of the human spirit.

The III International Festival of Adaptive Sports, IMPULSE – International Inclusive Games 2026 – is not only a celebration of sport but also a powerful impetus for global inclusion, where each participant demonstrates the boundless potential of the human spirit. As the founder and chairman of the organizing committee, I am deeply convinced that this festival will become a platform for uniting people from different countries, promoting innovation in adaptive sports, and inspiring millions to overcome any barriers. It will highlight that true strength lies in unity and equality, contributing to the creation of a more tolerant, multipolar, and supportive world. — Alexander Alexandrovich Smirnov, founder of the festival and chairman of the organizing committee.

Smirnov Alexander Alexandrovich

President of the International Inclusive Committee, Chairman of the Festival Organizing Committee

The Impulse Festival has long established itself as the largest international event in the field of adaptive and inclusive sports. Its mission is simple and ambitious: to create a space for fair and equal competition, where people with different abilities come together to strengthen friendships and build a borderless society. Here, sport is more than just a competition—it is a tool for promoting inclusion, sharing experiences, and inspiring new achievements. In 2026, the festival will bring together over 3,000 participants from over 20 countries, demonstrating their skills in over 30 adaptive and inclusive sports. From Paralympic disciplines to innovative inclusive formats, each sport tells a story of overcoming, resilience, and joy.

Imagine a gala opening ceremony, immersed in the glitter of lights, the rhythms of music, and a whirlwind of emotions. A vibrant show, where light and sound merge into a celebratory symphony, will open the festival under the direction of charismatic host Dmitry Guberniev . Backstage and on stage, performances from the brightest stars of Russian and international pop music will create an unforgettable atmosphere of unity. The closing ceremony promises to be no less impressive, featuring invited guests and artists from around the world, emphasizing the global nature of the event.

But "Impulse" isn't just about spectacular shows. Participants, guests, and spectators will enjoy a rich program full of discovery and inspiration. Spectacular competitions in a variety of sports will demonstrate how willpower conquers all obstacles. Informative master classes from renowned coaches and award-winning athletes will reveal the secrets of mastery, helping develop skills and share experiences. The cultural program, international forum, and exhibition of adaptive sports innovations will provide a platform for sharing best practices, where professionals from around the world will discuss how sport can change the world for the better.

The III International Festival of Adaptive Sports, IMPULSE – International Inclusive Games 2026, is more than just a sporting event; it's a powerful tool for promoting inclusion and equal opportunity worldwide. As Deputy Chairman of the Organizing Committee, I am convinced that this festival will be a catalyst for global change, uniting athletes of diverse abilities from dozens of countries to highlight the power of spirit and the overcoming of barriers. It will inspire millions to an active lifestyle, fostering the development of adaptive technologies and the exchange of experiences, and ultimately making our society more just and harmonious. — Vladimir Borisovich Eledinov , Deputy Chairman of the Organizing Committee.

Eledinov Vladimir Borisovich

Deputy Chairman of the Festival Organizing Committee

"Impulse" is more than just a festival; it's a truly large-scale movement aimed at strengthening professional ties and promoting the idea of an inclusive society. This year, Sochi will bring together enthusiasts deeply committed to the value of equal opportunity, ready to overcome any challenges and inspire others to achieve greatness. This is a unique platform where new leaders are born, and the spirit of healthy competition harmoniously intertwines with the warmth of human connection. Each participant leaves with the feeling that the world has become a little kinder and fairer. That's why the festival, for the third year in a row, is supported by the DobroFON charity program , emphasizing our shared commitment to positive change.

Join Impulse in March 2026 and become part of a story where sport unites hearts and opens horizons. After all, within each of us lies the power to change the world.